

Early Career Researcher Subsidy

30 May 2024 - CORE 2024 LEGACY FORUM - MELBOURNE

OVERVIEW

The Australia New Zealand IODP Consortium (ANZIC) is offering a limited number of subsidies for Early Career Researchers (ECRs) to attend its CORE 2024 Legacy Forum. The subsidies aim to encourage and support ECR participation and a chance to learn from previous AILAF projects, collaborate, and develop new projects. A session will be dedicated to workshopping new AILAF ideas or larger legacy projects that align with LEAP or SPARCs (IODP3's Scientific Projects using Ocean Drilling Archives) schemes that foster international and interdisciplinary collaborations.

ELIGIBILITY

ANZIC will assess expression of interest based on the following criteria:

- ✓ Your institution is an ANZIC Australian Member
- ✓ Your institution supports your attendance to the CORE 2024 Legacy Forum
- ✓ You are an ECR*
- ✓ Must attend the the Forum workshop for the full day.

* We define Early Career Researchers (ECR) as students and researchers who are at the undergraduate, graduate or post-graduate level (or equivalent) up to 5 years post-PhD

ECR SUBSIDY AMOUNT

Funding of up to AUD$300 is available to successful applicants.

HOW TO APPLY - EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Provide a brief summary (1/2 page) of how this opportunity will benefit you and enhance your prospects for career development.

Applicants can provide the name of their supervisor, mentor or their institution ANZIC representative in their submission.

APPLICANT INFORMATION

The ANZIC Science Committee will evaluate Expressions of Interest based on their alignment with the CORE 2024 Forum and the potential career development benefits for the applicant.
